

SOCIAL WORKER

Lakeshore School Division invites applications for a 100% permanent Social Worker commencing September 02, 2025

Lakeshore School Division is a small school division with big ideas. We believe that we can create thriving communities and individuals through education. We believe that the world is changing and how we do education needs to change too.

Under the direction of the Student Services Administrator, the Social Worker will support administrators and classroom teachers by consulting, co-teaching and/or coaching positive behaviour strategies as well as assisting attendance and various Student Specific Plans.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

1. Spend majority of time in schools consulting, co-teaching, coaching and directly supporting follow up from incidents
2. Support in the writing and implementing of Student Specific Plans
3. Provide professional development for divisional staff
4. Work collaboratively with administrators, Student Services teams, teachers, and parents/guardians
5. Respond to crisis situations and participate in risk assessments
6. Meet with parents

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Valid Social Work degree eligible for consideration as a certified school clinician
2. Minimum of 5 years of varied experience.
3. Graduate work would be an asset.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS:

1. Experience working with students with challenging needs
2. Experience with behavior coaching and/or co-teaching
3. Strong interpersonal skills, including a sense of discretion and confidentiality regarding coaching interactions and work with students.
4. Effective written and oral communication skills.
5. Leadership ability.
6. Organizational skills to work independently.
7. Ability to network within and beyond the school division.
8. Be a positive influence on the team atmosphere.
